NONDISCRIMINATION

Any form of discrimination based on race, color, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, religion, age, national or ethnic origin, political beliefs, veteran status or disability, in admission or participation in any of its programs, services or activities, or in employment, is contrary to the policies of the Sharon School Department.

The Sharon Public Schools will promote the rights and responsibilities of all individuals as set forth in the State and Federal Constitutions, pertinent legislation and applicable judicial interpretations.

If any member of the Sharon Public School Community, including students and their families, employees, the general public and individuals with whom the Sharon Public Schools does business, has a complaint or feels that he/she has been discriminated against, he/she should register the complaint with the Title IX compliance officer:

Mrs. Elizabeth Murphy, Assistant Superintendent for Curriculum & Administration, District Office, 75 Mountain Street, Sharon, MA 02067; 781-784-1570, ext. 1, e_murphy@sharon.k12.ma.us.
